BE BOLD & JOIN OUR PURPOSE.

With over 3.7 million reviews across 900.000 companies, kununu has become Europe's leading employer review platform.

We believe that every person - whether actively searching for a job or simply interested in improving their work life - should be able to give and get accurate, honest insights into companies and roles before walking in on day one.

We believe in empowering people to choose the right place to work.
We believe in workplace insights that matter.

A CHALLENGING TASK

- We have a strong purpose: Empowerment. That's what it's all about. We help people choose the right place to work and create a better workplace for all.
- On our platform kununu.com we provide workplace insights that show how it's really like to work at a given company.
- As part of our product team you help us in the development of existing products as well as in the identification, analysis and prioritization of new topics.
- You support us in research of the market, competition, refinement and the actual specification of features which will then be developed by our software engineering teams.
- Like a detective you will test and document features and processes of kununu.com and our competitors.
- You have a very good sense for numbers, distributions, evaluations – in short: data. We are a tech- and data-driven company. You help us make educated and fact-based decisions.

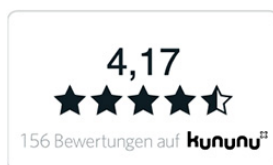

A CONVINCING BACKGROUND

- You identify with our mission, because you want to empower people to choose the right place to work and aim to create a better workplace for all.
- Ideally, you are in an undergraduate or graduate study program with a technical focus and you have already gained some experience in a similar field.
- You like working with data. You are eager to learn and you like to face new challenges. You are a creative mind who likes to think outside the box and find new solutions.
- What you do has impact for our users! Independence and a high sense of responsibility characterize you as well as reliability and showing initiative.

- You are a strong communicator, flexible and a true team player who ideally has worked in agile teams before.
- You have a very good command of English.
- You are immediately available for at least 20 hours per week.

AN INSPIRING ENVIRONMENT

- We believe that life is too short to spend it in the wrong company.
- At kununu you have the room to grow – personally and professionally.
- You work directly in the center of Vienna at the probable world's best employer: flexible working hours, an atmosphere that feels like coming home and an amazing team who work with a lot of <3 on their tasks, but who are always helping each other.
- We enjoy spending time together, be it on "Bacon Dude" Thursdays, after lunch Mario Cart sessions, table tennis "Ringerl", the occasional pub quiz or karaoke nights.
- We give a damn about our employees and offer numerous benefits like daily restaurant vouchers, organic fruit and 6 weeks of vacation per year, just to name a few. Want to bring your dog to the office? No problem at kununu.
- We live transparency: The monthly salary for this position is 1.542,20 € (gross) for fulltime.

SOUNDS GOOD?
